WEEKLY SNAPSHOT

White Christmas
FOOD PROJECT

The finish line is just ahead. We need YOU to help us cross it!
We continue to collect shelf stable foods for our annual White Christmas Food Project to provide food for families from Head Start, Cornerstone, and the NRV Workshop.

Suggested items: soup, canned meat, peanut butter, fruit snacks, tuna, cereal, instant oatmeal, raisins, microwaveable pasta, etc.
You can drop off food on Thursday 9:30 AM - 2 PM
OR bring it with you on Sunday morning.

Come pack boxes THIS Sunday, December 18 at 6 PM in the Fellowship Hall.

End of Year Giving

FBC Congregation,

If you plan to give an additional year-end contribution besides what will be in the offering plate on Sunday, December 25, please know that it should be received at the church by Tuesday, December 27. Persons using E-giving should make their electronic contributions by December 27 as well.

Thanks!
Melvin

SENIOR ADULT CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

Snowville Elementary recently named their athletic field in honor of Kenneth Harrell, a longtime supporter of youth athletics in the Snowville Community.

Nadia & Zelda pose for a picture with RU dance major & FBCR college student, Elizabeth, after The Nutcracker.

Congrats to our own Farrah on her recent graduation from RU in Music Education!
